JUDGMENT

In view of the intervening development, it is not necessary to deal with the rival contentions of the parties.

2. Petitioner had preferred this writ petition apprehending that the manager was not likely to allow her to continue in the school on the ground she had already tendered her resignation. According to the petitioner, she had withdrawn the resignation. But the manager insisted that the resignation had come into force.

3. Anyhow, the matter has been given a quietus by the manager. Learned counsel submits that the manager does not intend to forward the letter of resignation to the authority concerned. In other words, no further action on the letter of resignation is proposed to be taken by the manager. The letter will be treated as non est. It is further submitted by learned counsel for the manager that petitioner would be allowed to continue in the school. The above submissions are recorded.

Writ petition is closed.
